Workshop Outline
Data extraction tools, and the benefits to patients and practices, will be covered at this meeting. Participants will also have the opportunity to meet several Gippsland PHN representatives who will outline the role and support for practices that is available through the Practice Support and eHealth Teams.

Facilitators
Gippsland PHN Practice Support and eHealth Project representatives
Natalie Rinehart, Data Cooperative Manager, Melbourne East GP Network
Natalie has extensive experience in health psychology research and population health over her years in Divisions, Medicare Locals and PHNs. She now brings her expertise to the POLAR GP and POLAR EXPLORER data extraction tools.

Learning Outcomes
After attending this session participants will have an increased understanding of:
• The purpose of Practice Support and eHealth programs in the context of Gippsland PHN.
• Population health, and role of Primary Health Networks to profile and analyse data to understand local needs.
• How data extraction tools can support general practice in business analytics, person-centred care, population health and research opportunities.
• The use and benefits of the POLAR data extraction tool for general practices in Gippsland.
